

Do I have to request my Health Reward Incentive Gift Cards?

Yes. You will have to request your reward by trading your points in the Health Rewards "My Rewards" section. You will have a choice to trade points for gift cards from merchandise retailers or a Visa Reward Debit Card. Health Reward points can be traded for gift cards by increments of 100 points.

Do taxes apply to Health Reward gift card(s)?

Yes. The taxes on the amount of your health reward gift card(s) will be added as income and taxed in your paycheck. You will be taxed on your gift card(s) after you have traded your Health Reward points and requested a gift card. Your reward will appear as a Health Rewards Deduction on your paycheck.

How will I receive my Health Reward gift card(s)?

You will receive your gift card(s) in 30 - 45 days after you have traded in your health reward points. Your gift card(s) will arrive by U.S. Postal Service. If you have not received your gift card(s), contact Anthem Customer Service at 1-800-933-8415.

Envelopes containing gift cards will appear as:

Points that are not traded for a gift card by December 31st will expire.

Do I receive one gift card for all of my Anthem Health Rewards?

You can choose to trade 100 points for a $100 gift card, 200 points for a $200 gift card, or 300 points for a $300 gift card. You may trade your reward points separately for each activity you complete. You are welcome to save your points to combine them for a larger gift card amount to the vendor(s) of your choice or for a Visa Reward Debit Card.

Is there an expiration date for the gift cards?

Please refer to the Terms and Conditions document that arrives with your gift card(s).
